At being manifest that only in honor does education validate its very name, we, the students of oglethorpe university, with the concurrence of the faculty, now highly resolve to consummate that validation by establishing and abiding by, a code of honor.

The Stormy Petrel

note: Any publication means a great deal of work for the students who volunteer for the task. This year the staff found that the student body was expecting even bigger things from the stormy petrel than in the past. It had to produce bigger, better, and more issues. They did the job—and did it well!
